THREE JAPANESE TRANSPORTS ARRIVE OFF TAKU BAR

GERMANY'S ATTITUDE Toward Sino-Japanese Conflict

Berlin, July 24.
Another authoritative statement on Germany's attitude toward the Sino-Japanese conflict in North China, was issued here to-day.

The statement says from the outset Germany has followed with profound concern the disturbance in the political relations of the two great Far Eastern peoples, since, although in pursuit of no political objectives whatever in that region, the Reich nevertheless has considerable economic interests there which would naturally be seriously affected by any disturbance.

Hence Germany's ardent desire that, as in Europe, a settlement will be achieved assuring economic reconstruction and international exchange of goods.

After referring to the declaration along these lines made by the German Ambassador in Washington, and to its good reception by world opinion, the statement protests in strong terms against allegations made over foreign wireless stations to the effect that Germany and Italy would welcome intensification of the Sino-Japanese conflict in view of the Spanish civil war.

ANTI-COMMUNIST AGREEMENT
Basis of these defamations apparently is the German-Japanese anti-Communist agreement, which has nothing to do with the Sino-Japanese conflict.

The allegations are typical of the irresponsible manner in which it has become customary to represent Germany's political aims and interests to the rest of the world.

Such public utterances can in no way draw attention away from the fact as to who might in reality be interested in the outbreak of hostilities between China and Japan.—Transocean News Service

NO SIGN OF TROOPS LANDING

WAR MATERIALS UNLOADED CHINESE EVACUATING FROM CHAPEI AND HONGKEW

TIENTSIN, JULY 25: CONSIDERABLE EXCITEMENT WAS OCCASIONED HERE THIS MORNING BY THE ARRIVAL OF THREE JAPANESE TRANSPORTS OFF TAKU BAR AT THE ENTRANCE TO TIENTSIN RIVER. A NUMBER OF LIGHTERS WENT ALONGSIDE THE TRANSPORTS AND IT WAS BELIEVED THAT ADDITIONAL JAPANESE TROOPS HAD ARRIVED TO REINFORCE THE JAPANESE FORCES. BUT OBSERVERS REPORT THAT THROUGHOUT THE DAY ONLY WAR MATERIALS AND STORES WERE BEING UNLOADED. THERE IS NO SIGN OF TROOPS AT PRESENT THOUGH IT IS POSSIBLE THAT SOME ARE ABOARD THE TRANSPORTS.—REUTER.

EVACUATION OF CHINESE

SHANGHAI, JULY 25.—LARGE SCALE EXODUS BY THE PANIC STRICKEN CHINESE FROM CHAPEI AND HONGKEW IS PROCEEDING FOLLOWING THE ALLEGED KIDNAPPING OF THE JAPANESE BLUE JACKET, SADAIO MIYAZAKI LAST NIGHT ACCORDING TO A JAPANESE CIVILIAN, FOLLOWING A BRAWL BETWEEN THE CHINESE AND THREE JAPANESE BLUE JACKETS WITHIN 200 YARDS OF THE JAPANESE GARRISON HEADQUARTERS.

JAPANESE PATROLS IN FULL WAR KIT BEGAN TO HUNT ALL OVER HONGKEW, STOPPING ALL CARS, BUSES AND TRAMCARS FOR A SEARCH. MYSTERY IS INJECTED TO THE INCIDENT BY THE FACT THAT THE JAPANESE CIVILIAN WHO CLAIM TO HAVE EYE-WITNESSED THE BRAWL, AND ABDUCTION GAVE A FALSE NAME AND ADDRESS TO A JAPANESE BLUE JACKET TO WHOM HE HANDED A CAP AND TIE PURPORTING TO BELONG TO MIYAZAKI AND THE MYSTERY IS HEIGHTENED DUE TO THE FACT THAT MIYAZAKI'S ALLEGED COMRADES HAVE NOT DISCLOSED THEIR IDENTITY.

SITUATION GLOOMY SAY JAPANESE

PEIPING.—THE SITUATION IN NORTH CHINA IS DESCRIBED BY THE JAPANESE MILITARY AUTHORITIES HERE AGAIN AS GLOOMY BECAUSE OF "CHINESE INSINCERITY." THEY COMPLAIN THAT ONLY ONE REGIMENT OF THE 37TH DIVISION HAVE UP TO NOW EVACUATED FROM PEIPING WHILE TWO REGIMENTS OF THE 132ND DIVISION HAVE ARRIVED. FURTHERMORE CHINESE TROOPS ELSEWHERE ARE ONLY WITHDRAWING A SHORT DISTANCE AND ARE BUILDING NEW ENTRENCHMENTS INSTEAD OF RETIRING TO THE SOUTH.

ANOTHER MESSAGE IS TO THE EFFECT THAT THE JAPANESE MILITARY AUTHORITIES HAVE EXPRESSED DISSATISFACTION AT THE SLOW PROGRESS OF EVACUATION OF THE 37TH DIVISION AND INDICATED THEY WOULD AWAIT THE RESULTS FOR A DAY OR TWO BEFORE TAKING INDEPENDENT ACTION TO EXPEDITE THEIR WITHDRAWAL.—REUTER.

CHINA MUST RETAIN HOPEI

Canton, July 25.—That Hopei should be retained by China at all costs because it has heavy deposits in iron and coal is stressed in an article by Dr. C. W. Liang in the "New Canton Weekly" published to-day by the Central Military Academy at Yen Tang.

Representing opinion among educated circles in Canton, the writer pointed out that 93 per cent iron of China and 34 per cent coal are deposited in North China.

Giving the popular Chinese view, he said that defeat after resistance is better than concession, as continuous yielding means the loss of morale and nationalism and consequently the impossibility of the revival of China as a racial and independent nation.—Union News.

GOVERNMENT SUBSIDY TO TRAMP SHIPS

London, July 25.
British owners of tramp ships have reached a decision to continue on a voluntary basis the measures of cooperation which originated as a condition of the Government subsidy in 1935. The scheme of cooperation provides for observance of minimum freight rates and conditions, standard forms of charter and national maritime board agreements and regulation of tonnage. The subsidy scheme is still in operation, but owing to improvement in the demand for tonnage, and higher freight rates, it is quite likely a sum of £1,000,000 which has been set aside for the present year will not need to be used.—British Wireless.

SYRIANS THREATEN WAR

Damascus, July 24.
A sensational declaration was made before a crowd of 10,000 Mohammedans in the Omayyad Mosque here to-day by the Syrian Premier.

"Syria now has a sacred mission," he declared, "to liberate the entire Arab domain from foreign domination."—Transocean News Service.

THE PALESTINE SITUATION

London, July 25.

The Permanent Mandates Commission has been invited by the President of the League Council to consider recommendations of the Royal Institute set up by the British Government to examine the Palestine situation at the forthcoming session on July 30. This invitation was sent after consultation with members of the Council and in keeping with the British Government's request for the Mandates Commission's advice about the Palestine question before the September session of the council.—British Wireless.

HONG KONG DIVORCE RULES Full Court Provisions

The Gazette contains the draft of an Ordinance to amend the Full Court Ordinance, 1933.

This Ordinance amends the Full Court Ordinance, No. 8 of 1933, so as to make provision for the constitution of the Court in hearing appeals under the Hong Kong (Non-Domiciled Parties) Divorce Rules, 1936, which require a bench of two judges, other than the trial judge, nominated by the Chief Justice and approved by the Lord Chancellor.

These Rules were published by Government Notification No. 15 in the "Hong Kong Government Gazette" of the 3rd January, 1936, and provide, with respect to the appointment of judges that as soon as may be after the coming into force of the Rules, the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Hong Kong shall submit to the Lord Chancellor through the Secretary of State for the Colonies the names of such number of the judges of the Court (including, if he thinks fit, the name of the Chief Justice himself) not exceeding four, as he may consider necessary for the purpose of exercising jurisdiction under the Act and Rules. Upon the approval of the Lord Chancellor to any nomination so submitted being signified to the Chief Justice by the Secretary of State for the Colonies, the Chief Justice is required to cause the names so approved to be notified in the "Hong Kong Government Gazette" as the judges whose names shall have been so notified shall thereupon have power to exercise jurisdiction accordingly.

At any time after the first nominations under these Rules have been approved, the Chief Justice may propose the names of a further judge or judges for the time being having powers under the Act; and when such further nominations are approved they shall be notified as aforesaid.

In his despatch No. 128 of the 3rd April, 1936, the Secretary of State has notified that the Lord Chancellor has approved the names of the three judges of the Supreme Court submitted by the Chief Justice in January, 1936, and has further despatched a copy of the 16th April, 1936, the Secretary of State forwarded a copy of a Foreign Office letter of the 1st April, 1936, to the effect that the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs consented to the appointment of the Judge and Assistant Judge of His Britannic Majesty's Supreme Court for China to serve on the Full Court in Hong Kong for the purpose of hearing and determining appeals under the Hong Kong (non-Domiciled Parties) Divorce Rules, 1936.

"A GREAT MISFORTUNE"

Asahi Thinks Incident Is Regrettable On Both Sides

Commenting on the Sino-Japanese armed clash at Lukow-chiao, the Asahi says that the incident is a great misfortune for both countries, occurring as it has at a time when Mr. Kawagoe, the Japanese Ambassador, was leaving Shanghai for Peiping to make preparations for the opening of negotiations regarding the adjustment of Sino-Japanese relations. It is clear from the statement issued by the Japanese garrison at Tientsin that the blame for the incident rests with the Chinese side. The direct cause was the illegal firing by Chinese troops on the Japanese troops engaged in night exercises, but there must be distant causes as well. Those elements who take a malicious interest in complicating Sino-Japanese relations may have been in the background, or the Chinese troops who acted illegally may have simply been misled by anti-Japanese propaganda. What is certain is that the incident would never have happened, had the negotiations for the adjustment of Sino-Japanese relations in the North been successfully concluded. Unfortunately, these negotiations have been deadlocked since last winter, and in the meantime the antipathy of the 29th Army against Japan has been growing. The general sentiment of the Chinese people towards Japan has also been fast approaching breaking point.

The Asahi journal hopes that the Chinese authorities will realize the gravity of the situation and make strenuous efforts to promote an amicable settlement of the affair. If they behave in this way, the Japanese authorities will cooperate for the common end.

Lord Baden Powell, the Chief Scout, intimated that the Boy Scout Association in Britain will be appealing for funds. JAPANESE PRESS

A CAUSTIC COMMENT

One of the most regrettable aspects of the whole affair is the attitude the Japanese press is voicing in its editorial comments, a point of view which perhaps is not altogether unexpected, but which is certainly not calculated to soothe Chinese feelings or ease the task of the coming conference, says the "Japan Chronicle" in a leading article on the Sino-Japanese situation. There is a general recognition of the dangers which lurk in the background, but a complete inability to understand the nature of the Chinese desire for a change in the political conditions which have ruled the Hoph-Chahar area since the Tangku Armistice put an end to the fighting in North China nearly five years ago. Typical of these comments is that of the Tokyo Hochi. Having cited recent unsatisfactory conditions in the North, the decree forbidding the

German Church Delegates Threaten Withdrawal

London, July 24.
The German Delegates to the World Church Conference now proceeding at Oxford, Bishop Mueller and Pastor Schmidt, have informed the Chairman of the Business Committee that they must withdraw if it is decided to send a message which has been drafted for address to the German Evangelical Church.

The message contains an announcement to the effect that a delegation from the Conference will visit Germany to give information to German Evangelical Church circles as to the meaning of resolutions to be passed at Oxford.

The German delegates declare that the message is calculated to give rise to many misunderstandings which might have been avoided had they been consulted before it was formulated.

They emphasise that the Church is free in Germany and religious services are not hindered in any way.

INTENDED MISSION

They express the conviction that the message in its present form will not fulfil its intended mission but on the contrary will merely increase tension especially in view of the fact that the Catholic Church is also included, which in itself is unprecedented.

The German delegates urge the Conference not to regard the message as its final word to Christians in Germany, and ask for an opportunity to make a declaration before the full Conference.

SURPRISE FOR OFFICER

Stolen Jewellery Returned From Canton!

Jewellery to the value of nearly $3,000, which was reported lost some three weeks ago, was restored to its owner, Captain P. S. Whitehead of the Royal Artillery, of No. 11, Peak Missions on Saturday. The jewellery was sent from Canton through the post. It proved a pleasant surprise to Capt. Whitehead when he opened a small packet addressed to him in a strange and illiterate hand and found that the contents were his two diamond finger rings, a gold locket and a chain.

It is not supposed that remorse or sentiment afflicted the conscience of the thief and compelled him to return the articles.

Their unexpected restoration is believed to have been the result of police activity in pursuit of the thief, suspected to be a missing house-cook, with whose relatives detectives had got into contact and thoroughly scared. It is assumed that the cook, warned of the nearness of the police hunt, decided for his own sake—and for reasons connected with the difficulty in disposing of highly valuable rings—that discretion was safer.

A laconic police message on the incident contented itself with: The property of Captain Whitehead has been recovered. No arrest has yet been made.

Mission To Germany Regarded With Scepticism

Berlin, July 24.
In a statement concerning the message despatched by the World Church Conference at Oxford to the German Evangelical Church, the intention of the Conference to send a mission to Germany is regarded with a great deal of scepticism though the scheme is neither encouraged nor condemned.

It is pointed out, with a reference to Germany's past experiences of the system of international control, that so far it is not apparent who will be chosen to partake in the mission, or what it will set out to accomplish.

It is "put on record, however, that the tone of the resolutions passed by the Oxford Conference betrays sentiments of enmity to the German Reich.

As for the Oxford plan to establish a World Council of Churches, to meet every five years, it is asked in Berlin whether this will be in the nature of an ecclesiastical League of Nations, in which the Anglican and American group will place a dominating role.

POLITICAL CATHOLICISM
Is it to be a repetition of the Geneva game? is the question asked. That would obviously lead to the entry of politics into Church affairs.

The statement concludes with an exhortation to all Church circles in Germany to have nothing to do with such a "remarkable" venture.

Exception is also taken in Berlin to the way in which the Oxford resolution plays up political Catholicism and makes mention in the message to the German Evangelical Church of the Church situation in the Soviet.

"DENOMINATIONAL CO-OPERATION"
It is the assumptions and insinuations contained in this part of the resolution that induced the statement to describe the Oxford resolutions as a "blow aimed at the idea of denominational co-operation."

A message from London reveals that the protest, by the German Free Church delegates to the message to be sent from Oxford to the German Evangelical Church has been followed by others, including one from the Russian Orthodox Church abroad.

The latter's declaration contains one passage as follows: "Far be it from us to withhold our sympathy from all Christian brothers who are suffering for their faith."

"But we must rise in protest when in this connection the Roman Catholic Church in Germany is mentioned as a Church which has suffered for the sake of its faith."

FINANCE MAGNATE VISITS COLONY

Just back from a tour of Europe and the United States, Mr. J. Marsman, President of Marsman and Company, arrived here from Manila by the Dollar Line vessel, President Coolidge.

Mr. Marsman visited his properties in Java and the East Indies on his way back from Europe, and then made a quick inspection of his Philippine properties before coming to Hong Kong where he was met by Mr. G. B. Clifford Hull.

Mr. Marsman said that in Europe particularly in Belgium and England things seemed to be progressing very rapidly and conditions were exceedingly good. In the United States, too, marked and rapid improvements could be seen in economic conditions.

Marsman properties in the Far East were developing well, said the financier. All the mines in Manila showed an increased output, while Hong Kong should have a big future as a centre of the mining trade in South China.

PRINCE CHICHIBU Cheered At Lancashire Cotton Mill

Prince Chichibu, the Crown Prince of Japan, visited Manchester recently, states the "Manchester Guardian." He met the Lord Mayor (Alderman Joseph Toole) on his arrival and, after being entertained to lunch by his host, Sir R. Norton Barclay, inspected the Manchester Ship Canal and the Tatton, Ordsall, and Throstle Nest mills of Messrs. Richard Haworth and Co., Ltd.

The Prince's visit has been interpreted as his personal contribution to a better understanding between Japan and Lancashire in their cotton textiles competition, and the friendliness of his welcome at Messrs. Haworth's was note-worthy. The Prince was received by Mr. Richard Firth Haworth, a great-grandson of the founder of the firm, and he inspected the whole of cotton processing from spinning to weaving. During the tour he shook hands with a woman who had spent the whole of her working life in the mills, and when leaving he acknowledged the cheers of a large crowd which had assembled outside the gates.

At luncheon the Prince's health was proposed by Sir Norton Barclay and Sir Edward Rhodes (president of the Manchester Chamber of Commerce) supported the toast, Prince Chichibu, replying, spoke of the pleasure it gave him to be in the company of distinguished Manchester business men because it was with Manchester, rather than any other place, that Japanese people associated the industrial progress of Britain. He referred to the common interests of Japan and Britain and expressed the hope that the two countries would co-operate to meet the economic needs of the world and bring prosperity and happiness to it.

"CONDITIONS OF SECURITY"

U.S. To Sell Helium For Airship

Berlin, July 24.
The United States Senate has passed the Bill providing for the sale of helium to foreign companies for commercial flying, according to messages from Washington.

The news receives enthusiastic welcome in Zeppelin circles in Germany, where it is pointed out that passage of the Bill will provide "conditions of security" which the Air Minister, General Hermann Goering, demanded before the German Zeppelin service could be resumed.

The American action, it is added, is in the interest of international technical advancement. — Transocean News Service.

SHIPPING RETURNS

London, July 25.
The Chamber of Shipping's quarterly return shows that only 47 British and foreign vessels of 61,225 tons net were laid up in ports of Britain and Ireland on July 1.

This total was less by 32.2 per cent. than on April 1 last and compares with 200 vessels of 502,219 tons laid up a year ago. — British Wireless.

DEADLOCK REMAINS

London, July 25.
It is understood that the deadlock remains in the International Non-Intervention Committee.

After three days of private discussions the disagreement regarding procedure to be followed in discussion of the British proposals for perpetuation of the non-intervention scheme, appears to be as acute as ever.

As the deadlock persists, the British authorities find difficulty in agreeing that the question of procedure should be made the cause of delay. They would welcome the expression of substantial reasons for Italy's attitude, or word of the Italian intention to venture a compromise suggestion.

If Italy gives neither, it is pointed out, there will be grounds for concluding that the Italian Government does not share the British desire for speed in settlement, and the British Government may then feel obliged to abandon the proposals for continued non-intervention and the granting of belligerent rights to both sides in Spain, and adopt an entirely new attitude towards non-intervention. — Reuter.

No. 77 SET

BETTER VALUE THAN EVER

The Gillette No. 77 Set illustrated here, which contains the latest Gillette razor, three Blue Gillette slotted blades and two blade holders in a new type of moulded box, has these definite advantages.

The razor is made in two pieces instead of three, as formerly, thus making it easier and quicker to clean, assemble and use.

The blades are made by the new electrical-tempering process. They give not only closer, cleaner shaves than you have ever had before, but also more shaves per blade.

The case is ideal for hot and humid climates as it is so easy to keep clean.

Ask your dealer to show you a No. 77 Set—one of the most popular that Gillette have ever made.

GREEN LIGHT

"Green Light," that stirring story of heroism, sacrifice and love, which had many hundreds of thousands of readers in its book form a couple of years ago, comes as a photoplay to the King's Theatre to-day—a faithfully made, splendidly-cast Cosmopolitan production, released by First National.
Errol Flynn, the young Irishman who made sensational hits in "Captain Blood" and "Charge of the Light Brigade" is the masculine star of Lloyd C. Douglas' gripping tale. He plays Dr. Dalgle, the scientist who almost gives his life in researches destined to alleviate human suffering.
The girl he wins, after much misunderstanding and unhappiness, is the lovely little blonde Anita Louise, who had a recent triumph of her own as the mother of "Anthony Adverse," in the film version of that book, and shares stellar honours with Flynn.

I MET HIM IN PARIS

The puzzling and amusing task of choosing between two desirable suitors is presented to Claudette Colbert in her latest comedy-romance, "I Met Him In Paris," which is showing at the Queen's and Alhambra Theatres to-day.
In "I Met Him In Paris" Claudette returns to present-day roles and portrays an American working girl on a grand vacation in the French capital. Finding that romance knows no geographical limits, Claudette falls in love with two men, both very nice but widely different in personality.
She can't decide which man to marry; Douglas is a man of few words; Young is a super-egotist who thinks he has a way with women. Each wages an ardent campaign to capture Claudette.

MATRIMONIAL CAUSES BILL

London, July 24.
All morning papers publish editorial comment on the passage through its final stages in Parliament of the Matrimonial Causes Bill, giving effect after a quarter of a century to the leading recommendations of the famous Gorouss Gorell Report.

Unanimous tributes are paid to the tact and persistence of Mr. A. P. Herbert, the well-known writer who entered Parliament in 1933 as the Member for Oxford University with the specific purpose of securing divorce law reform.

The "Daily Herald" says that "Mr. A. P. Herbert joins the select band of Parliamentarians, of whom the most famous is Mr. Samuel Filson—back benchers who have by their own initiative and persistence secured the passing of really important legislation."

MR. A. P. HERBERT CONGRATULATED
The "Manchester Guardian" while joining in the congratulations to Mr. Herbert considers it strange that legislation on a matter of such importance should have been left by the Government to the initiative of a private member and thinks it not impossible—as several other papers suggest—that amending legislation may have to be undertaken by the Government itself in the not far distant future.
An assurance of this character was given by the Solicitor-General in the final Commons debate yesterday.

INTOLERABLE HARDSHIP
The "Morning Post" which thinks that Mr. Herbert's success proves that public opinion in favour of this long delayed reform must have been much stronger than had been supposed says of the Bill that there is nothing in it to encourage divorce or to make it easier for the reckless and light-minded. There is nothing to derogate from the dignity and seriousness of marriage but there is something to abate the admitted and not uncommon cases of almost intolerable hardship in the present law.—British Wireless.

WORLD ECONOMIC ORGANISATION

Universality, Permanence And Independence

The establishment of an independent world economic organisation, with a view to solving "the great problems which menacingly confront humanity," was suggested by the King of the Belgians in a letter to his Prime Minister, M. van Zeeland, to-day.

The Belgian King wrote from Brussels, and suggested that it is essential to bring about the creation of an organism of economic studies, the value of which would be emphasised by their triple character of universality, permanence and independence.

The objects of studies would be research into elements of universal economic organisation and continuous adaptation of this organisation to constantly changing economic factors.

In order to be able to fulfil its mission, it is proposed that the institution ought to be independent, or, so far as possible, of national influences. It is essential that it be able to rely on the co-operation of persons throughout the world who are best acquainted with all questions related to industry, trade, agriculture, finance and labour.

The King's letter reveals that Mr. van Zeeland is about to set out the preliminary results of his inquiry, with which he was entrusted by the British and French Governments, on the possibilities of removing obstacles to international trade.

QUEST OF ELEMENTS

The letter refers to the present world disorganisation and expresses profound anxiety with regard to the future. It emphasises the necessity of encouraging every attempt at organisation and dwells on the importance of M. van Zeeland's mission, which, it says, may lead to a quest of elements of rational organisation of world economy.

The King says that M. van Zeeland's welcome to the United States indicates that that country is favourably disposed towards the effort initiated by the British and French Governments, together with Belgium. These three great

FEELING OF BROTHERHOOD

His Majesty goes on to say that neither the lowering of tariff barriers nor any partial measure can alone end the confusion which is threatening the peace of the world. "If we really wish to avert war and bring back mankind to a more peaceful frame of mind, we must have the courage to tackle the economic question in its entirety, and to solve the great problems which menacingly confront humanity—the distribution of raw materials."

Such distribution means the exchange and international distribution of labour, equilibrium between agricultural and industrial nations.

The King of Belgians concludes that whole sections of the human race are no longer in sympathy with each other. And he adds: "If one first step can be taken to bring them together again we shall be offering humanity, and especially the East, in more than words, proof that the West values above all immediate considerations, the spiritual strength emanating from a genuine feeling of brotherhood."

"CAMPAIGN OF LIES"

Italian Press Flares Up On Spain Issue

Rome, July 24.

The entire Italian Press, which has recently been refraining from attacks on Britain, yesterday took up arms against comments in the British and French Press on Italy's attitude in the Non-Intervention Committee.

"Giornale d'Italia," which is usually the mouthpiece for the Foreign Ministry, characterises all such reports as a "campaign of lies."

Defending Italy's viewpoint on non-intervention, "Giornale d'Italia" declares that the re-establishment of land and sea control of the Spanish frontiers and recognition of both parties as belligerents, must be carried out before withdrawal of volunteers can be considered, "because it is only when these two steps have been taken that actual withdrawal can be guaranteed."

"BOLSHEVIST MANOEUVRE" In connection with the order of procedure of the British proposals, the Italian Ambassador in London, Count Dino Grandi, merely wished to place the proposals on a firm and practical basis.

"Tribuna" declares that the attacks on Italy launched by the British and French Left Wing papers are merely a "Bolshevist manoeuvre," which has as its objective the forcing of Italy and Germany out of the non-intervention committee, so that France and Russia will have a free hand to help the Spanish Government to victory.

MUSSOLINI'S STINGING ATTACK ON REPARATIONS

Rome, July 24.

A stinging attack on Reparations, the League of Nations and War Debts is contained in to-day's issue of "Popolo d'Italia."

Attributed to Signor Mussolini himself and held to be of much significance, the article declares that while Reparations have been liquidated, the question of the Inter-Allied debts is still outstanding.

Inter-Allied debts the article intimates, are of extreme material and moral importance.

Nevertheless, the European nations continue to tell the United States year by year that no pay-

INTENSIVE BOMBARDMENT OF REPUBLICAN LINES

200 Loyalists Killed

Salamanca, July 24.

General Franco, accompanied by several high officers, made a tour of inspection of the Madrid battle front yesterday.

Soon after the insurgent commander had left, the rebel artillery blazed forth in another intensive bombardment of the Republican lines.

It is estimated that about 800 shells of heavy and medium calibre were hurled into one area with a radius of one kilometre.

The Plaza Mayor district suffered heavily from the bombardment, which lasted several hours, and is reported to have killed about 200 loyalists.

BOMBING RAIDS

Meanwhile the nationalists occupied Navalgamilde and Majadahonda, at the western and eastern ends of the salient which had been formed by the last Republican offensive.

Capture of these two places will have the effect of reducing the salient which jut into the nationalist lines.

During the day, nationalist aircraft carried out several bombing raids.

On the Teruel front the advance continues and large concentrations of loyalist troops are claimed to have been surrounded as a result of the capture of the township of Ambesqueas.

In Barcelona it is claimed that a nationalist attack on Huesca was repulsed yesterday.

Another Barcelona report states that the police have discovered and confiscated a secret wireless set, at the same time making several arrests.

ment on War Debts will be forthcoming.

GENEVA ORGANISATION The League of Nations, continues the article, is based on a system of pretence and the idea of the universality of the Geneva organisation is without any foundation whatsoever.

The nation which invented the League refused to participate in it after it had been formed, and the directing machinery is in the hands of the men in the Secretariat, that is, France, Britain and Russia.

DIVORCE LAW REFORM

London, July 23.

Without a division, the House of Commons to-day approved the House of Lords amendments to the Matrimonial Causes Bill, and passed it.

Introduced by Mr. A. P. Herbert with a view to giving effect to some of the principal recommendations of the Royal Commission on Divorce of 1912, the Bill barely survived the vicissitudes of private members' procedure. It is now ready for the Royal Assent.

The effect of the Bill is to add to adultery, formerly the sole ground for divorce, additional grounds of desertion, cruelty or incurable insanity. A feature of the Bill which has excited a good deal of controversy is the first clause, which provides that no petition for divorce may be made within a given period after marriage. Fixed originally at five years, the period was reduced to three by a House of Lords amendment approved by the House of Commons to-day, with discretion given to the Courts to accept a petition sooner in cases of exceptional hardship or depravity.

The Bill has been eighteen months in passage through Parliament, and Mr. A. P. Herbert, who is the Senior Burgess for Oxford University, and its other sponsors were to-day the recipients of widespread congratulations.

Nationalists Claim Victory

London, July 24.

Reports from Spain on the progress of the civil war contain their usual share of ambiguity.

It appears certain, however, that the only fighting now proceeding is on the Madrid front, where the nationalists claim a victory at the Guadajara River.

They also claim that in the Brunete sector they have captured a whole line of loyalist trenches.

The Government counter-claims, however, stating that the rebels have made no progress at all on the Madrid front.

RECOGNITION OF BELLIGERENT RIGHTS

Paris, July 24.

French diplomacy is adopting a waiting attitude on the non-intervention question.

Quarters close to the Quai d'Orsay state that France will continue to make withdrawal of foreign volunteers a preliminary condition for recognition of belligerent rights to both warring parties.

Withdrawal of volunteers is regarded by France as the crux of the whole non-intervention question, on the assumption that the tension in the European political situation cannot be overcome so long as this problem has not been solved.

"Since taking Kalzana my headaches vanished"

My NERVES are much STEADIER than they were before" written Mrs. N. L., Cape Town, S.A.

Kalzana is a remarkable food containing no drugs whatsoever.

In hot countries one's diet and the extent to which one perspires tend to decrease the mineral contents of the body. Many complaints such as irritability, high blood pressure, dizziness, acidity, which are so often ascribed to "the climate" are due largely to this loss of minerals.

When you do not feel as well as you should, start taking Kalzana tablets. They will soon put you right.

PAULINE CHASE'S HUSBAND LEAVES £50,000

Miss Pauline Chase, the actress, who played the title role in "Peter Pan," for eight consecutive years before the war, has been left £50,000 by her husband, Captain Alexander Victor Drummond of Bas-setta, Mark Cross, Sussex, and Cloakland, E.C.

Captain Drummond was chairman of Shawinigan Ltd., and the Transatlantic and General Securities Company, and an executive director of White, Drummond and Company. He died on April 28 last, aged 49, leaving £50,000, with net personalty £12,286.

He left £1000 and his effects to his wife, Ellen Pauline, Matthew Drummond, and after a few other legacies to servants and others, the residue to her for life with remainder to his son Alexander Peter Drummond, and three-tenths each to his daughters Ann and Jane.

BRITISH PLANS FOR WAR EMERGENCY

SIR T. INSKIP'S SURVEY

Sir Thomas Inskip, Minister for the Co-ordination of Defence, addressing a gathering of about 1,000 City business men, disclosed the progress of the Government's plans in the event of a "National Emergency."

The Navy: Vast resources of oil fuel have already been accumulated.

Industry: Decisions have been taken to provide or to store some of the most important of the raw materials required in the event of an emergency. Considerable supplies of essential commodities are now available.

Food: Steps have been taken for increasing the food production in this country. A constant concern of the Cabinet is the position, control, and distribution of food supplies, not only for the fighting forces, but for the civil population.

Sir Thomas stated that information which he had just received showed that of 123 air squadrons, formed since rearmament began, all but one would be up to full strength by the end of July.

WELL ADVANCED

Regarding the Navy, he stated that work on the 1936-37 building programmes had been accelerated and was well advanced. The new battleships would be the best protected yet built, cruisers and destroyers would embody the highest possible standard of efficiency in gun armament permitted by our Treaty obligations.

The fact that H.M.S. Hunter did not sink when she struck a mine and was seriously damaged was a tribute to workmanship and design.

London's Anti-Aircraft Division was being equipped as rapidly as possible. Every element necessary was 100 per cent—except the personnel. Recruitment was something less than 50 per cent.

Appealing for recruits to this and other units of National Defence, Sir Thomas stated that the Government were preparing plans whereby a maximum number of Government posts would be offered to ex-Servicemen.

to-day is more confident of herself than ever before, and rightly so. She has determined to stand but not to deliver.

During a recent nation-wide broadcast from New York (which was heard in China), Dr. H. H. Kung, "Minister of Finance, used these words:— "We welcome economic assistance from abroad provided it is based on principles of equality and reciprocity. We are determined to have peace with our neighbours, far and near alike, when peace is compatible with our national integrity."

Undoubtedly it is the change which has been wrought in China during the past few years which appears to us to constitute the most effective brake on Japan's pell-mell policy. Every report from Nanking and Shanghai supports the view we have persistently expressed in these columns, namely, that the crisis finds China firmly united in a decision to resist territorial aggrandisement and interference in domestic affairs. The prospect of China preparing herself for what the Central Government at Nanking considers a struggle for life is surely not one which the Japanese higher command or the Cabinet can contemplate with any great feeling of assurance. Once started, a Sino-Japanese War would not be confined to the Northern plains. Such a conflict of arms would inevitably entail vast military operations over an immense area and it would exact from Japan an economic contribution, the astronomical total of which would make the brain reel. If the masses in Japan share with the militaristic party, scintillating visions of almost immediate success to be followed by the enormous profits from the expeditions, exploitation of the conquered areas, then those masses can only be dubbed a bunch of witless simpletons.

STRAWBERRIES FRESH AFTER TWO YEARS

Work Of New "Lab." At Covent Garden

TELL-TALE ALCOHOL IN APPLES

A new Government laboratory for research into fruit storage and transport was opened recently in Covent Garden, London, by Sir Frank Smith, Secretary of the Department of Scientific and Industrial Research.

It will be part of the duty of the laboratory to examine market samples of fruits such as mangoes, mangosteens, and "papaws," which are relatively new to the British public. Special storage arrangements will enable the condition of the fruit, as it reaches the housewife, to be accurately judged.

Here, too, will come the first trial shipments of such other perishable crops as strawberries, raspberries, peas, and runner beans, the storage of which for long periods has lately been made possible.

FRUIT OUT OF SEASON

At the Department's Low Temperature Research Station at Cambridge, whose work the Covent Garden laboratory will supplement, it has been proved that strawberries can be frozen in syrup for a period up to two years with virtually no loss of flavour. It is suggested that such fruit would be specially suitable for use "out of season" in sundaes and iced "sweets."

Both raspberries and loganberries, it has been found, can be similarly stored, but without the addition of extra sugar. Peas and beans are very slightly cooked, and then frozen. The latter process has already been successfully applied for the preservation of home-grown peas for hotels. They arrive frozen, and are thawed immediately before cooking. Other tests have been made with asparagus and lettuce.

STORED LIKE BEEF

Great interest is being taken by Dominion visitors in these achievements, since it is felt that they may enable new forms of export trade to be built up. It is pointed out that the storage conditions required are almost identical in many cases with those already employed for frozen beef. Only a minimum of special equipment would therefore be needed.

Among the achievements displayed at the opening of the Covent Garden laboratory, was that of using the natural alcohol contained in apples to measure the age of the fruit. The amount of alcohol in an apple, it was explained, increased progressively as the apple grew older. By the time the skin was beginning to wither, the proportion might be as great as 4 per cent.

Hitherto the age of apples has been generally determined by measuring the rate at which they "breathe." Not only is the new method regarded as more convenient, but it is hoped it will be possible also to use it for the diagnosis of disease.

Mr. John Lewis's New Campaign

Mr. John Lewis, head of the Committee for Industrial Organisation, has given orders to start a campaign for unionisation among 300,000 maritime workers. His aim is apparently to recover the ground he lost in the steel strike, which has now almost petered out.

When asked whether he did not think he had lost the confidence of President Roosevelt and the public he smiled and replied: "If the public wants to approve the C.I.O. it can. If it wants to disapprove it can."

The question whether Mr. Roosevelt and Mr. Lewis have reached a parting of the ways continues to arouse great interest in political circles. Some C.I.O. leaders are known to be of the opinion that the time has come to end the alliance with the Democrats and enter the political arena more openly in association with the American Labour party.

This organisation, which at present is confined mainly to New York, already supports Mr. Lewis wholeheartedly. If the dispute over Supreme Court reform continues to divide Mr. Roosevelt's own party, the next Presidential campaign, it is suggested, might give American

SCHOOL SPEECH DAYS

Lord Willingdon And Openings In India

A number of school speech days were held at Home recently, and extracts from the addresses are given below:—

Marlborough College—Mr. G. C. Turner, Master, said he feared that their neighbours in the town might think they were rather selfish in their appropriation of land and in shutting off the westward expansion of Marlborough. Might he assure them that it was no mere acquiescence that actuated them to do so. It was simply their earnest wish to preserve the chief circumstance which had given their school its character, for of all the blessings that were theirs he counted high above the rest their immediate access to a lovely countryside and the chaste simplicity of the downland that surrounded them.

Repton School—Lord Willingdon, former Viceroy of India, said that that country offered prospects that were perfectly amazing to those who could sympathise with the hopes and aspirations of its people in the matter of complete control over their own affairs. He said that in his judgment the future would depend very largely on the influence and authority of the British Empire in bringing about that peace, goodwill, and better understanding that everyone longed for.

Halleybury College—The Master, Canon E. F. Bonhote, said that he had met about a dozen business men who had to do with appointment and training of young men going into business, and only two had doubts about the use of post-Certificate work, except so far as it was of a commercial nature. "There is no lack of openings in the business world for boys leaving school, and so far as I know there is no case of unemployment among boys who have left Halleybury in the last three years."

Gossip By Elspeth

Last Monday the Ladies Room at the Hong Kong Club cast aside all repressions for the cocktail party given by Mr. J. F. Macgregor to say goodbye to his sister, Mrs. Mullins. This delightful and popular person has been with us for some months and will be tremendously missed.

Mrs. Mullins wearing a soft flowery dress of printed chiffon, helped her brother to receive the guests. Among the early arrivals was Mrs. Donovan, who is always so exquisitely soignée. She was wearing a dark dress of perfect cut and was talking to Mrs. Churcher, who has only recently returned from a holiday in the North.

Mrs. Edgar Davidson looked charming in a long cream cocktail dress set off by a large hat.

Mrs. Cook was as usual extremely well turned out and wore one of the new small brimless hats.

Mrs. Shields was talking vivaciously to Mrs. Michael Marriott, who was being welcomed back from Singapore.

Mrs. Abbott with her usual good taste had chosen eau de nil angel skin with an exciting pre-Raphaelite neckline. With her came Miss Isobel Harrison, who is glancing at Hong Kong as part of the Grand Tour. She wore a cool looking green frock enlivened with touches of mauve.

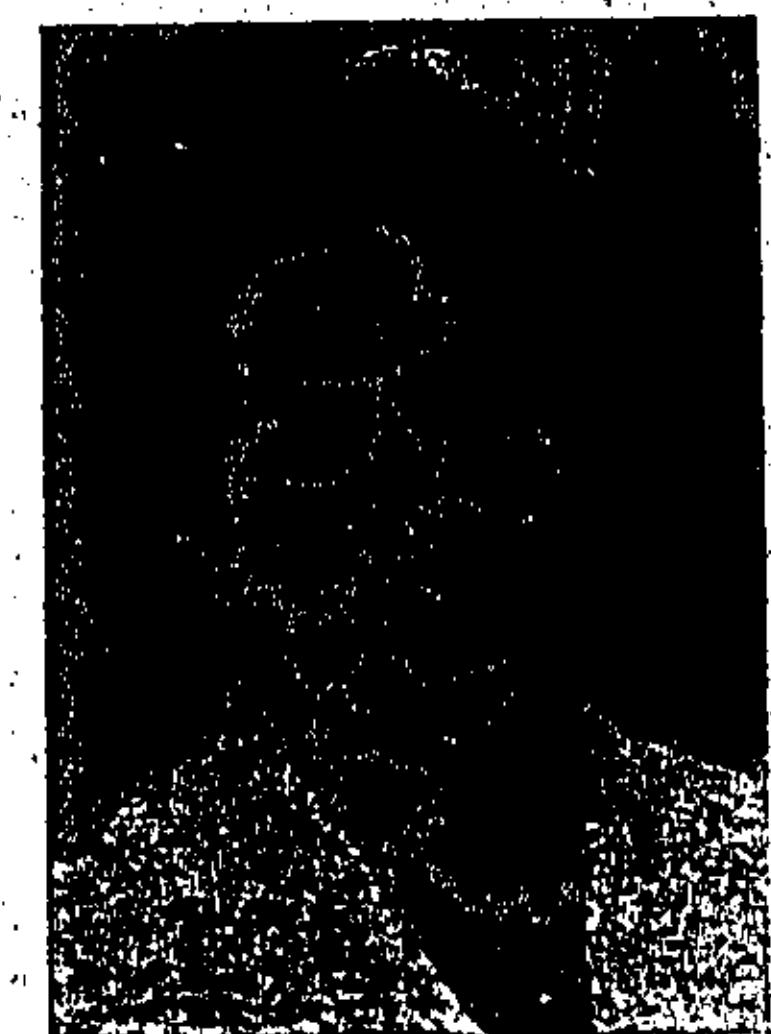

Mrs. Dalziel, who came with Wing Commander Dalziel, was smartly dressed in a deep shade of blue. Mrs. Mason set off her delightful black and white outfit with an amusingly contrived rolled turban, and Mrs. Walker in flowered chiffon, was "chatting" with Mrs. Croucher, who had cleverly combined dusty pink with touches of dark brown.

Mrs. McAvoy in navy and cerise with a large navy hat was chatting with Captain Swinburne and asking after Mrs. Swinburne, who is spending the summer in Japan.

We were much entertained by the candid transpontine criticisms of British insularity, which were being elicited in one corner of the room and wish their amusing author bon voyage since we learn that he is soon to leave us.

It was nice to see Colonel and Mrs. Blake back again looking immensely fit after their holiday in Japan and North China. They were talking to Mrs. Ferguson, who wore a dark frock with an amusing oyster satin collar.

It is sad that the occasion for such a delightful party should be to say farewell to a person who will be as much missed as Mrs. Mullins but let us hope that the more optimistic an revoir may be substituted for Goodbye.

Charming Mrs. Fermin del Rosario of Manila, is spending a short holiday in the Colony at the present.

Mrs. Gerrard looking very young and beautifully dressed, had brought her two daughters. One hears with regret that Mrs. Hamilton is soon to leave for England to rejoin her husband who is at present on the Indian Frontier.

Mrs. Lammie wore a cool looking back and white outfit, and Mrs. Winter in a pastel coloured dress was talking to Mrs. Clough Taylor who looked most attractive in brown.

Mrs. McAvoy was asking after Mrs. Swinburne.

MRS. FERMIN DEL ROSARIO

Costumier Holidays In Colony

The popularity of Hong Kong as a holiday resort with residents in Manila is again emphasised, this time by two very charming visitors, Mrs. Fermin del Rosario and her sister, Miss Nana Reyes, who have just arrived here and are staying for a few weeks.

Mrs. del Rosario is the owner of the Peacock Shoppe, Manila, so well-known to the leaders in ladies' fashions in that city.

The two visitors are staying with friends here and are being lavishly entertained. A moonlight bathing party was given in their honour at Repulse Bay on Saturday night and they were both very much impressed by the beauty of the "Riviera of the Orient" by moonlight.

WORLD CONFERENCE

Delegates are to be sent from all over the world to attend the seventh World Conference of Educational Associations to be held in Tokyo from August 2 to August 7. One of the aims of this conference is to promote peace and understanding between nations through the medium of education. The Conference is also being held in the hope that the younger generation will be more responsive to propaganda of this kind.

The drama that is being enacted in North China certainly presents a strange contrast, writes a correspondent in "Times of Malaya." Rarely does it happen that peace propaganda should be carried out in an atmosphere full of war-alarm. It is hoped that the Japanese will practice what they propose to preach at the conference in August.

MAJOR AWARD IN BRITISH ARCHITECTURE

The Rome Scholarship in Architecture, generally considered to be the major award an architectural student can obtain, has been won this year by Mr. William T. C. Walker, of 25 Comely Bank Road, Edinburgh, a student at the Edinburgh College of Art, states the "Glasgow Herald."

This is the first time any Edinburgh student has won the scholarship, but of the 18 finalists chosen to compete for it, four were students of the Edinburgh College of Art School of Architecture.

The scholarship is of the value of £250 a year for two or three years, tenable at the British School at Rome. Any British subject under 30 years of age may compete. Mr. Walker, who is 24 years of age, received his general education at Broughton Secondary School, Edinburgh, and began a morning school course at the College of Art in 1935. Among many other prizes he has won was the Lochner Memorial Sketch Prize in 1934, and the Bowen Anderson Scholarship this year—the highest prize awarded by the Incorporation of Architects in Scotland, which takes the form of £100 and a silver medal.

This was the first attempt he had made to win the Rome Scholarship. Mr. Walker has travelled extensively in Europe, mainly with the help of vacation scholarships awarded under the Andrew Grant Bequest Scheme of the College of Art.

The design for which he won the prize was for a zoological garden on a fine wooded site slightly rising towards a low ridge, and about 100 acres in extent.

Besides the general lay-out, the actual design of many buildings had to be included—restaurants, band enclosures, administrative block, a director's house, and the various cages and enclosures for animals, birds, fishes, reptiles, and insects.

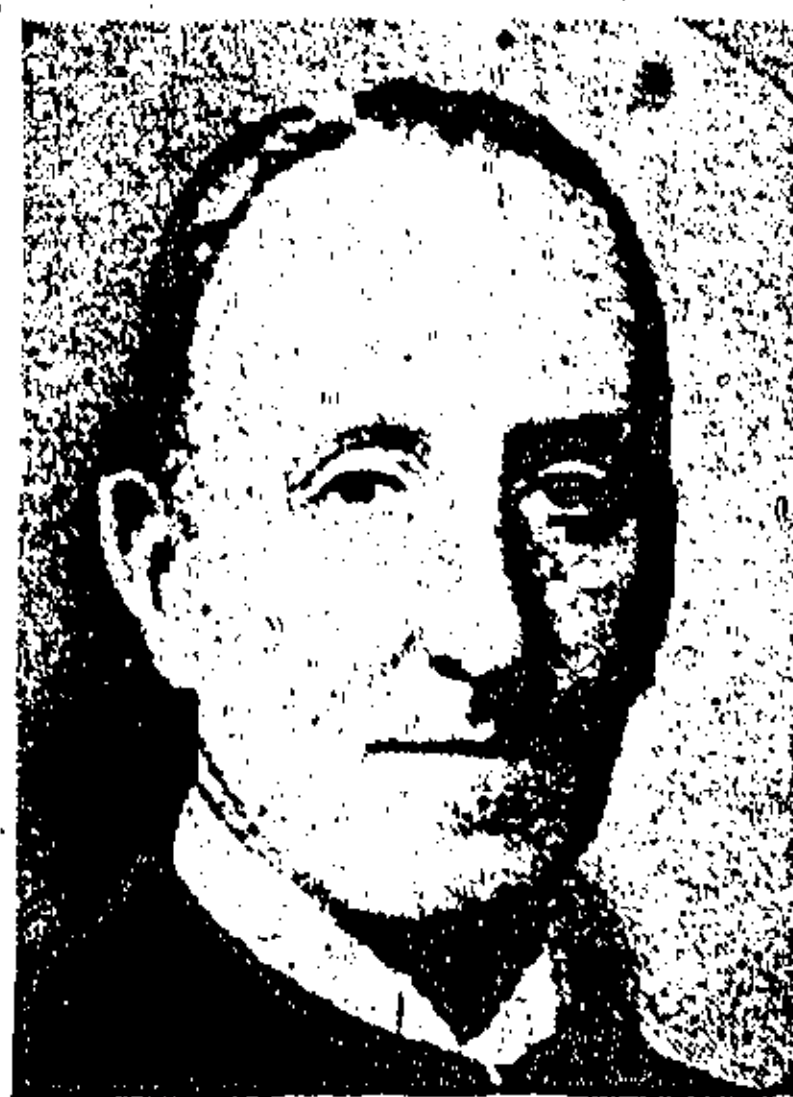

The Faculty have also commanded the design submitted in the competition by Mr. Hubert Bennett, A.R.B.A. of the School of Architecture, University of Manchester.

NON-INTERVENTION COMMITTEE AND
VITAL PROBLEMNew Method For Dealing With British Proposals

London, July 24.

As a result of further talks the Foreign Secretary (Mr. Eden) and Lord Plymouth, Chairman of the Non-Intervention sub-committee had on Friday and Saturday with the French and German diplomatic representatives in London it is now almost certain that the Chairman's sub-committee will meet again on Monday or Tuesday.

Lord Plymouth

Herr Von Ribbentrop

To this meeting will be submitted the suggested new method for dealing with the British proposals so as to overcome the difficulty which arose at the last meeting when it was found impossible to agree on the order in which items in the plan should be discussed. As had been made clear in the original proposals themselves various items are inter-dependent.

The revised procedure is likely to take form of a questionnaire to be circulated to the Governments. This list of questions would cover all British proposals and it would be again made clear that items be constituted in one whole and that the order in which they appeared either in the original document or in the questionnaire had no special significance. It is hoped, in this way, to elicit from the Governments parties to the non-intervention agreement a definite indication of their attitude to proposals. The Governments would be asked to reply at a specified and early date. It has been emphasised again and again by the Foreign Secretary that the British Government considers until the withdrawal of foreign nationals in the Spanish Civil War has been secured the dangers for the rest of Europe inherent in the Spanish situation remain and the British efforts, therefore, in the last few days as in recent months had been directed solely towards facilitating progress by the Non-Intervention Committee on this vital problem. British Wireless.

LORD PLYMOUTH TO SOUND POWERS
ABOUT COMPROMISE PROPOSALS

London, July 24.

It is understood that a new effort to end the non-intervention deadlock will shortly be made. Britain hoped to call a meeting of the Chairman's Sub-Committee on Monday at which Lord Plymouth would submit a document containing a series of questions, the object being to ascertain the views of the powers concerned on the important features of the British compromise proposals.

Once members of the Sub-Committee agreed on this form of procedure the document will be referred to their governments, the Chairman urging speed replies. It is understood that Herr von Ribbentrop has given provisional assent to the new procedure and that M. Corbin also considered it favourably.

The British Government intends by collating replies to define the field of disagreement. Meanwhile it is not unlikely that Germany and Italy will shortly inform the committee that they refuse any longer to recognise the naval patrol exercised by Britain and France alone on the ground that it operated only against the coast held by the insurgents.—Reuter.

United States Declines To Back BritainTo Intervene In Sino-Japanese Dispute

London, July 24.

The revelation that definite proposals had been raised between Great Britain, the United States and France to intervene in the North China dispute should war seem imminent, is made by the "Evening Standard," which adds the proposals broke down owing to America.

Much diplomatic activity has been going on behind the scenes, the paper states, and important decisions arrived at in London, Washington and Paris.

Apparently yesterday the British Ambassador in Washington, Sir Ronald Lindsay, visited the Secretary of State, Mr. Cordell Hull, and remained closeted with him for several hours.

In addition, the French Ambassador paid a visit to the State Department.

OFFICIALS RETICENT
Though official circles in all three capitals are extremely reticent and refuse to divulge the subject of the conversations, it is known that the Sino-Japanese dispute was the only topic discussed.

Surprising result of the talks, the paper alleges, is that Mr. Cordell Hull told the British and French Ambassadors that the United States would refuse to intervene in the Far East.

INTERNATIONAL MEDIATION

Should war break out in the Far East, therefore, the journal says, it will go on to its inevitable conclusion without foreign intervention, since Great Britain and France will not act without the full co-operation of the United States.

In addition, the Japanese Government is sure to reject any offer of international mediation.

The Japanese Ambassador, who also visited Mr. Cordell Hull yesterday, is stated to have declared that any acceptance of foreign mediation offers by Tokyo would arouse such indignation in Japan that the Kono Government could not consent to such a step.—Transocean News Service.

SUPPRESSION OF ANTI-
JAPANESE ACTIVITY

Shanghai, July 24.

Official Chinese circles decline to comment on the Japanese War Office communique, issued yesterday, which announces that the Hopen-Charhar Political Council has agreed to suppress anti-Japanese activity and Communists and to eliminate those persons who are impeding good relations between China and Japan.

Nanking will make no statement pending receipt of the full text of the agreement made between General Sung Chih-yuan and the Japanese.

It seems clear, however, that the terms of the agreement are irreconcilable with Marshal Chiang Kai-shek's four point policy and consequently will not be acceptable to the Nanking Government.—Reuter.

BRAWL IN HONGKOW

Shanghai, July 24.

Abduction and feared murder of a member of the Japanese garrison following a brawl in Hongkew with a group of Chinese tonight, has led to a state of tension in the district not equalled since the Sino-Japanese clash in Shanghai five years ago.

The entire Hongkew area, the main Japanese residential district in Shanghai, has been thrown into an uproar as a result of the incident, and Japanese tanks, armoured-cars and motor-cycles are driving up and down Hongkew, with machine-guns menacingly trained on the pavements, where Chinese passers-by are being searched by Japanese patrols.

The incident occurred at 9.30 to-night when the abducted man, Sadao Miyazaki, together with two companions, who were on leave from barracks, clashed with a group of Chinese civilians only 200 yards from the headquarters of the Japanese garrison opposite Hongkew Park.

MYSTERIOUS ORIGIN

Origin of the affair is shrouded in mystery, but it is known that while the brawl was going on a motor-car suddenly drew up at the curb.

Miyazaki was bundled into the car and whirled away, before his companions could come to his aid. Within a few minutes of the alarm being given, the Japanese garrison had cordoned off an area in Hongkew of two square miles.

Machine-gun and Lewis-gun posts were hastily established at important street corners, and steel-helmeted bluejackets with rifles at the ready stopped all Chinese pedestrians and searched them for arms.

Intense excitement exists among the Chinese population, with remembrance of the 1932 holocaust still vivid in their minds, and the streets are quickly presenting a deserted appearance as the inhabitants escape to the protection of their homes.—Reuter.

Peiping, incidentally, is in the grip of a most intense heat wave and the mercury to-day rose to 100 degrees in the shade.—Reuter.

TOKYO WAR OFFICE
WARNING

Tokyo, July 24.

War Office circles declare that they are prepared to deal drastically with any interference in the fulfilment of the local North China agreement.

The Japanese military leaders in North China are authorized to take all measures they deem adequate for ensuring the fulfilment of local agreements by the Chinese authorities in the event of the Nanking Government interfering with the Hopen-Charhar Council.

The Japanese message reports that the future development of the situation will depend entirely on the attitude of the Chinese Central Government troops which have already entered Southern Hopen in violation of the "Hopen-Umetsu Agreement."

The situation will become normal, the message says, if those troops withdraw. Otherwise, it will possibly take an alarming turn.—Reuter.

One of the world's greatest transport systems

Since its organisation twelve years ago, Britain's Imperial Airways... has been one of the world's greatest air transport systems... It was one of the first air lines in the world to show a profit... Its flying and mechanical staffs have been consistently excellent... The Air Ministry has decided that the Empire needed a strengthened air transport service... Thus Imperial Airways' re-equipment programme has not only been started but pushed forward with the utmost dispatch... Back of all this astounding energy lies a new British air transport policy that causes transport experts of other countries a lot more concern than the explosion of the 'slow-old-Imperial' tradition... All first-class mail addressed from one part of the British Empire to the other will be carried without surcharge... What such a British policy means to the rest of the world's air lines remains to be seen, but most observers expect widespread repercussions... In any case the sleeping lion now aroused is showing no lack of speed in getting under way

CABLES "SWENONIS"

TO GET RID OF STOMACH TROUBLES

An English Doctor writes:—

"I find that 'Bisurated' Magnesia taken after most of my meals is the only thing that keeps me free from pain and discomfort, and I take it regularly. I often prescribe it for my patients, and have had very good results."

(Signed) Dr. H. G. M.A., M.R.C.S., L.R.C.P.

THE English doctor is the most conservative medical man in the world, and when he not only recommends but personally uses a remedy there can be no more convincing proof of its efficacy. This doctor is but one of many who constantly advise the use of 'Bisurated' Magnesia in all cases of indigestion. Most stomach trouble is caused by acidity, and the reason why 'Bisurated' Magnesia gives quick relief is that it instantly neutralises excess acid and soothes, heals and strengthens the inflamed stomach lining. Nothing could be simpler, safer or surer. If you suffer with indigestion or stomach disorder of any kind put your faith in European science and make an end of your troubles by taking 'Bisurated' Magnesia after eating or whenever pain is felt.

HUTTON'S FIRST TEST CENTURY

Second Test At Old Trafford

England compiled 356 runs for 9 wickets in the Second Test at Old Trafford yesterday, an astonishing close of play in view of the tea-score, which was 237 for the loss of only three wickets.

Sound batting, sometimes attractive, featured the early play, but a debacle appears to have set in after tea, when six wickets fell for an addition of 121 runs.

Hutton compiled his first century in test cricket, and Barnett and Hardstaff both made useful scores.

R. W. V. Robins for the second time in the series, won the toss and elected to bat. A crowd of only 4,000 was present when Hutton and Barnett went out to open the English innings.

The teams were as follows.
England:—R. W. V. Robins (Capt.), F. R. Brown, Hammond, Barnett, Ames, Paynter, Hardstaff, Hutton, Smith (J.), Wellard, Goddard. Twelfth man Parks (J.).

New Zealand:—M. L. Page (Capt.), H. G. Vivian, J. L. Kerr, W. A. Hadlee, M. W. Wallace, M. P. Donnelly, D. A. R. Moloney, E. M. Tindill, J. Cowie, Dunning, Gallichan.

START DELAYED BY RAIN.
Rain delayed the start for a quarter of an hour but when play was eventually started, Barnett got going with his usual vigour and Hutton played his usual defensive role.

At lunch, which was taken early owing to further rain, the score was 87 for no wicket. Hutton being 29 not out and Barnett 58 not out.

At lunch, which was taken early owing to further rain, the score was 87 for no wicket. Hutton being 29 not out and Barnett 58 not out.

The first century was hoisted in 97 minutes and then the partnership came to an end when Barnett rocked up a tame catch to Kerr at mid-on off Cowie. He had hit six 4's in a fine innings of 62 (100-1-62).

FAST RATE OF SCORING
Hardstaff then joined Hutton and the fast rate of scoring was well maintained. The 200 was signalled on the telegraph in 185 minutes and 28 runs later Hutton's first century in Test Match cricket came to an end.

He was caught by Dunning at mid-off off Vivian for 10. His was a slow but sound innings, in which the batsman revealed a wide variety of strokes (228-8-100).

ACCURATE NEW ZEALAND ATTACK
Hardstaff was joined by Wally Hammond but with only three runs added to the score, the Notts batsman, who had proved rather uncertain against the accurate New Zealand attack, went too far out of his crease and was stumped by Tindall off Vivian. Hardstaff had taken two hours for his runs (231-3-58).

Six more runs were added when tea was taken, Hammond being three not out and Paynter four not out, the score then being 237 for three wickets.

WIMBLEDON RESULTS

One All In Davis Cup

Wimbledon, July 25.
C. E. Hare put up a terrific challenge to Donald in the Challenge Round of the Davis Cup at Wimbledon yesterday, but at the end of the day's play, the position was as anticipated, Austin winning for Britain and Budge for the United States.

Here's match, the second of the day, was one of the most sensational in the Davis Cup for years. The first set went to 28 games before Budge won through, after which Hare seemed down cast by the failure of his intense effort, and was swept off the court. The scores in the match were 15-13, 6-1, 6-2, in Budge's favour.

"Bunny" Austin put Great Britain one up when he beat Frankie Parker in straight sets, the scores being 6-3, 8-2, 7-5.

Austin outdrove and outmanoeuvred his American opponent and, except for occasional periods in the third set, when Parker desperately stormed the net, was never seriously troubled.

CLASSIC TENNIS
Austin played his shots in his usual classic style and kept Parker from the net with fine sweeping backhand drives.

Parker led for the first time in the match, when he went ahead by 2 games to love in the third set, but Austin was not out of the picture for long and recovered his domination to lead 5-4. Parker made his final effort and drew level at 5-5, but was unable to hold Austin in the last two games.

JAPANESE PRESS

sale or leasing of land, the pressure brought to bear on Chinese suspected of too friendly dealings with the Japanese authorities and the "energy and stubbornness with which the Nanking Government is pursuing its set purpose of re-establishing full sovereignty over North China," the Hochi adds the following remarkable statement:—

No matter how hard it may try, Nanking will not easily succeed in its aim, for Japan will not allow conditions in that region to re-shape themselves as Nanking wishes.

What sort of oil is this to pour on the flames? It is not, of course, an expression of official opinion, but the unanimity with which the press has taken its stand along these lines and the appeal of such papers as the Chugai Shogyo for "a more positive attitude" in North China is a challenge certain to be accepted by the Chinese press with all that means in the way of exciting public opinion there still further.

Secret Kept For Fifteen Years

Children Suffering From "Mongolian Idiocy"

A young man and a girl who had undergone shocking transformation due to the rare disease known as "Mongolian idiocy" have been found in a New South Wales South Coast fishing town.

They had been secretly kept by their parents in a special compound for 15 years.

The amazing discovery was made recently when the mother, a naturalised Australian, was taken to the hospital as a result of an accident. Investigation showed that she had kept the grotesquely deformed man and girl not only away from the public, but apart also from her several other normal and healthy children.

Sixteen years ago the family arrived in Australia.

Within 12 months of their arrival, the two children became sickly and, to the horror of their parents, gradually went a facial change that was almost unbelievable.

The faces became enlarged, flat and Mongolian, their eyes protruberant and their senses dulled.

LIKE ANIMALS

In a few years they had assumed the manners almost of animals, and the stricken parents had been driven to keep them out of sight of the public. They kept them in a special compound at the rear of the house, unknown to anyone in the district. They were secretly fed and tended.

Recently, while shopping, the mother was injured and was taken to hospital.

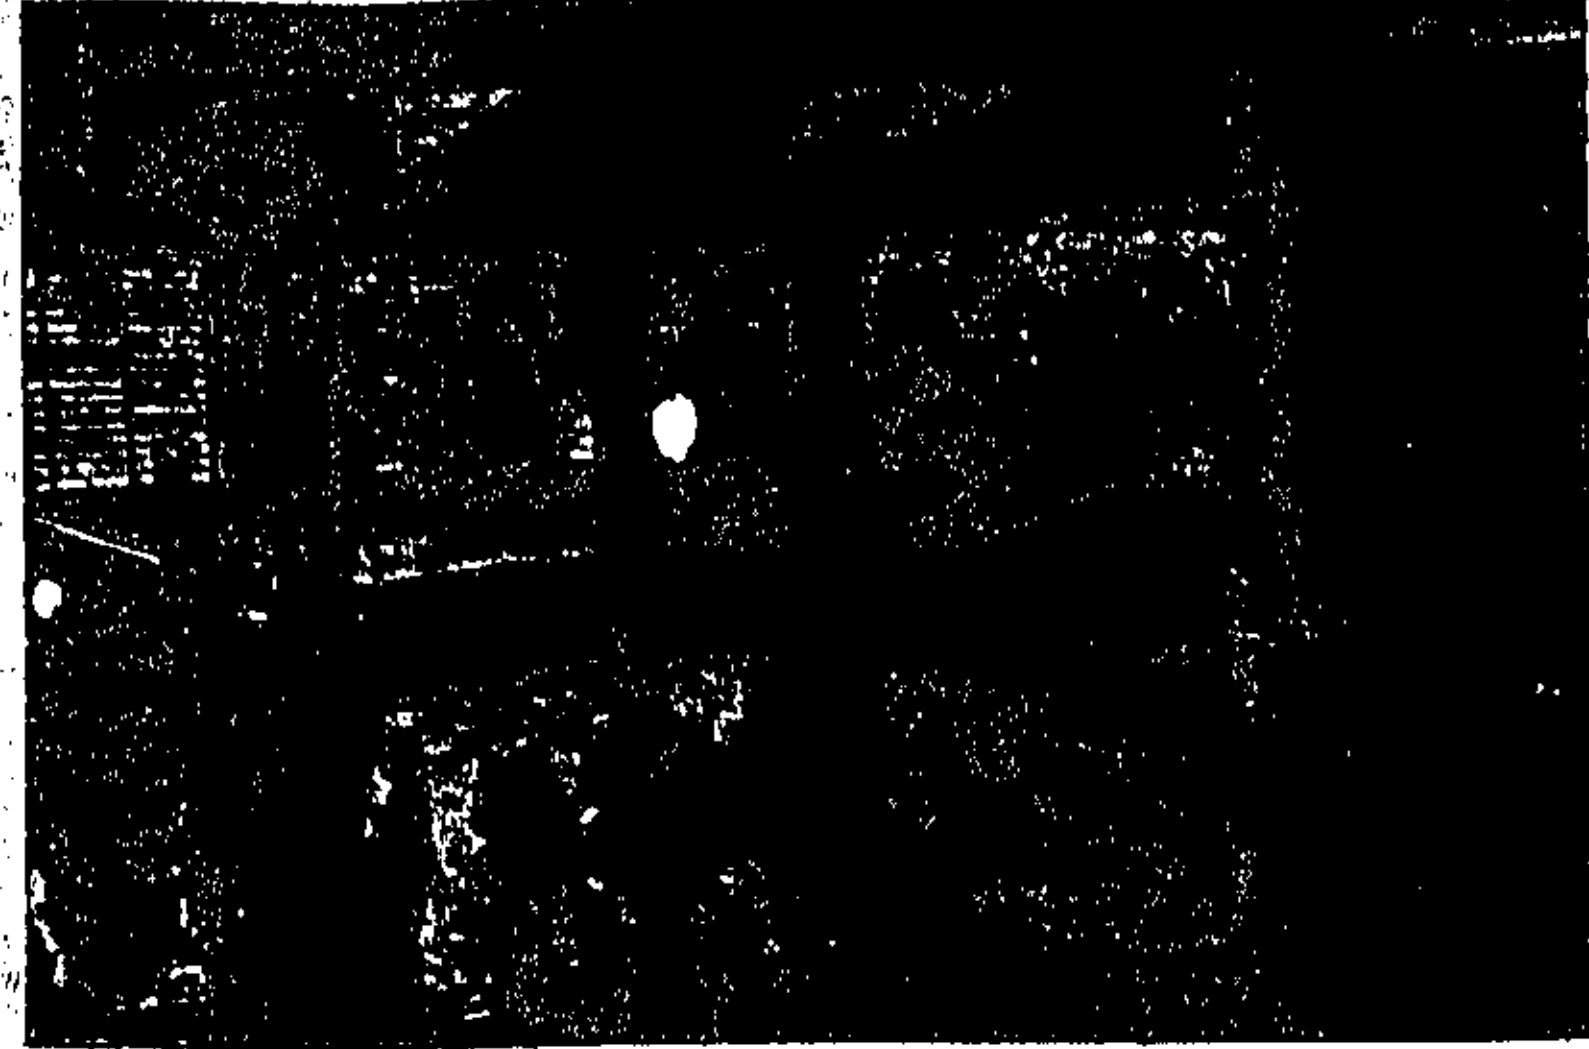

Inquiry as to the welfare of her family while she was in hospital led to the discovery of the pair—the boy 21 and the girl 19—then almost unrecognisably grotesque as a result of a glandular enlargement, having superimposed its effects on the original disease.

"Mongolian imbecility," the common medical name of the disease, is extremely rare, but there have been several cases in Australia in the past 30 years, said a Sydney specialist.

The usual effect is a facial transformation to that of a Mongol. The disease manifests itself at an early age. In some cases, such as that mentioned here, it takes an exaggerated form and the patients become very much like animals in habits as well as appearance.

NUTRITION

A world-wide effort is at present being made to find the most nutritious food for men, women and children. Milk has been found to supply most of the deficiencies in other foods. In order to help the general public judge for itself the value of milk school-children in some countries in the East are being given a pint of milk a day. "This school milk-shop is to go. Many Malayan parents would welcome the introduction of a similar scheme into this country as most of them are opposed to their children purchasing odds and ends from hawkers during recess. Malayan schools should encourage the "drink more milk" campaign.

RUSSO-GERMAN RELATIONS

Moscow, July 24.

The words uttered by Herr Hitler when he received the new Soviet Ambassador in Berlin, M. Constantin Yurenev, are favourably commented upon by the newspaper "Izvestia."

The paper says that Soviet-German relations are normal only in a formal way. It is essential, it says, to bear this fact in mind. Nevertheless, it is satisfactory to know that Herr Hitler has recognised the maintenance of normal relations between the two countries as being in the interest of both countries.
